No weapon can be stronger than love

Believe in love to strengthen yourself

Every day I open album of my memories

Seeing your pictures to feel you

Closing to open again to feel you

With camera of my eyes I once took...

I have nothing to hold you

No words... Dumb unspoken words

I find in the world out of my world

Still I hear your image blabbering

In my joys I smile

you smile with my smile

In my sorrows I cry

You smile to make me smile

For once, a flash of your image

Come as a strength and weapon

To fight to defeat all evils

So is it not...a love,

a divine source of energy?

It is rightly said:

Mein mandir kyun jaava

Mera yaar basaa hai Andhar

Mein masjid kyun jaava

Mera yaar basaa hai andhar
