Today I'm very happy
My appreciator made me scrappy
She commented at my verses
And defecated my work rehearses

It really got a meaning
Her eyes assumed its screening
Seemed I've become a versifier
After prejudiced by the rectifier

Her time for it
Makes my heart lit
She's become my part
With mighty work of art

Would that! Her behavioral approach
Might change in spiritual encroach
That'd make her more prestigious
To be strictly and truly religious!

The spurred hands really prop
To the composing skills of a hop
But a spouse is the best peer
If she loves your work as a dear.
